CADI'S MASS CONVENTION

Will Be Held on Jackson's Day, With-

out Anything to Eat. A spirit of bitterness and intolerance pervaded vesterday's and last night's meetings of the "push" called to prepare for Cadi Buskirk's mass convention, which is to be held on Jackson's day, Jan. 8. In the afternoon a meeting of representatives of the various clubs that supported Bryan was held at the rooms of the Cleveland Club. Here the famous Edwin St. George Rogers presided, and such notables from over the State as Allen W. Clark, "king of all the push," and D. F. Allen, looked in upon the gathering. As is usual at the gatherings of the silver radicals, there were sixteen words to one thought and a very considerable waste of lung power. The upshot of it all was a decision to have no banquet and liam H. Armstrong & Co., composed of William | the appointment of the following committee H. Armstrong and Emil Wilbrandt, and doing business at No. 77 South Illinois street, in the on arrangements for the gathering: Messrs.

W. R. Myers, Thomas Taggart, Myron D. King, E. St. G. Rogers, John Kealing, Lon McClellan and Fred Schrader, This committee met in the evening at the Grand Hotel and the first business accom-plished was the adoption of a resolution that the invitations to the convention be confined to "those Democrats who supported Mr. Bryan and the regular Democratic ticket in the last campaign." Nobody knows of any soung-money Democrats who desire to attend the Cadi's mass convention. but if any such there be, this resolution bars then out. Then it was decided to invite Bryan to address the meeting, but inasmuch as there is no offer of $1,000 attached to the invitation, the committee has out slight hope of securing his attendance. With the almost certain knowledge that he will not come, the committee also decided to invite Senator "Joe" Blackburn, of Kenucky. They want to make this Jackson's lay "stand out in bold relief" as the greatest celebration in the country, to use the expression of the member who suggested the invitation to Blackburn, and they think Blackburn can bring it out. There was something of a difference of opinion as to whether John E. Lamb, of Terre Haute, or Green Smith should be invited as an Indiana speaker, but the decision was for Smith on account of "the burdens he had assumed in the campaign, and because, even since it is over, that contemptible sheet on Washington street keeps on villfying him." This eloquent plea for Smith

THE SENATORIAL CAUCUS. Movement on Foot to Hold It on on the part of his champion won the day

for him, and he will be one of the speakers,

There is a movement on foot to hold the senatorial caucus during the first week of the session of the Legislature, probably on the night of Jan. 7. The managers of both the principal candidates say that this is a matter they will permit to take care of itself, but say they are ready for a caucus right now. The speakership caucus and caucus of the Senate for the selection of officers will be held on the night of Jan. 6, and the session will begin on Thursday, Jan. 7. If the usual custom is followed the Legislature will adjourn Friday noon to he following Monday to give time for the appointment of the standing committees, herefore, if the senatorial caucus is to be held during the first week it will probably come Thursday night. The election occurs

"Munyon Saved Our Baby's Life." Mrs. Samuel King, rear 434 St. Clair street, says: "The Munyon treatment has brought our baby out wonderfully. We feel that we owe her life to Munyon. The baby had pneumonia and we all thought that we would have to give her up. We could see no hopes for her life till one of Dr. Munyon's physicians called and directed what remedies to give. The doctor only called once. And I never saw a child improve like she did under his treatment. She is now well. Munyon saved our baby's

"Can't Say Too Much for Munyon." Mr. Ed Boetler, 124 Spann avenue, conductor on Chicago division of the Big Four Railroad, says: "I cannot say too much for Munyon's remedies. They have had a wonderful effect on me. For eighteen years I have suffered from catarrh, and three weeks ago I consulted one of Munyon's physicians. My nose and throat were in an awful condition and were giving me lots of trouble. I am most entirely well. have urged several of my best friends to go to Munyon and be cured.'

He has written for particulars of the show.

The midcontinent show at Kansas City closes five days before the Indianapolis show, a fact which will help make the one here unusually successful, as Eastern and Canadian exhibitors at Kansas City will stop to exhibit their fowls before taking them home. A large prize list has been offered, and chicken fanciers seem to realize there will be no little honor in carrying off the ribbons. Among the many varieties of fowl that will be exhibited here are the Langshans, American Dominiques, Wyandottes, Plymouth Rocks, Cochins, Brahmas, Leghorns, Minorcas, Polish, Hamburgs, Dorkings, red caps, Creve Coeur, Houdans, AFleche, games, pit games, Indian games, Sumatras, Malays, Aseels, Campines, Orpingtons, Russians, Sultans, frizzles, white wonders, erminettes, silkies, rumpless, game bantams and many more besides. Chickens will not monopolize the entire show. There will be all varieties of pigeons, ducks, geese, turkeys, pea fowls and other domes-

The bench show of the Hoosier Kennel Club will be held in Tomlinson Hall the week beginning Feb. 1. It is the intention of the members to make it one of the best shows ever held in the State. A committee has been at work sending entry blanks and giving information to dog fanciers all over the country for over a month. Over one hundred varieties of dogs will be exhibited. A man in this State will bring his string of trick dogs, besides which there will be a public test of bloodhounds tracking criminals. A man hunt will be given one dayduring the show.

A Gasoline Explosion.

A gasoline stove exploded yesterday afternoon in the office of A. Cornwell in Volney T. Malott's building, at 371/2 West Market street, causing a run of the fire department and a small loss to the occuant. While the department was still lookng after this fire an alarm came in from Box 824, on East Washington street, and several companies were sent to answer it, but it proved to be a scare.

T. P. Swain, of This City, Elected President of Association.

The Commercial Travelers' Association of Indiana held its twenty-second annual meeting in the Board of Trade building yesterday. The session lasted from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and was opened with prayer by Rev. G. A. Carstensen, after which The annual poultry and pet-stock show | Mayor Taggart delivered an address of and William F. Hanley secretary as

> At the opening of the meeting a motion was made that Rev. Mr. Carstensen be invited to preach to the association at some later date, and was carried. The mayor's address was responded to by David H. past twenty-seven years, and that the drummer himself had improved to a great extent, as it was formerly the rule that drummers were very convivial personages but at this day sobriety business conduct requisite for the retention of positions. He spoke of the varied experiences of the drummer, and pointed out that because of these experiences the traveler was posted on all topics and well in

President Woodward followed with a short address in which he expressed his ardent hope that the association, though strong now, would increase in strength. and that the day was not far distant when Javas, Jersey Blues, Spanish, Andalusians, the families of deceased members of the asociation would receive $4,000 instead of $2,000, as at present.

> Several amendments to the constitution and by-laws were adopted, the most important being an amendment to Aritcle 3 of the by-laws, as follows: "This association being formed for mutual benefit and not for profit to any individual member, there shall be no salaries or fees paid to the officers who transact the business of the association. But the board of directors shall in its discretion have power and authority to make an allowance quarterly to the secretary and treasurer for his services in keeping the books of the association, the sending out notice to the members, the giving of bond as treasurer and for any actual time lost by such secretary and treasurer in transacting the business of the association, but the allowance by such board of directors when made by it, shall be, in each instance. a full payment of all claims of such secretary and treasurer, and no further claim shall be made by such secretary and treasurer on the association, it being understood that the board of directors shall make only such an allowance as it deems proper an no more than what is so allowed shall ever be paid to such secretary and treasurer; and the member of the association accepting the office of treasurer and secretary does so with the understanding that his entire compensation shall be only such sums as the board of directors see proper to al-
